FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: As in today's gospel, Jesus often used a meal as the place to teach. Too often family meals are rushed, eaten in shifts or in the hypnotic glow of TV. Meals can be sacred times where we listen, share, appreciate and instruct one another. Don't lose the opportunity.

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Are you planning a cookout next weekend? Many people use the Labor Day holiday as an opportunity for an end of the summer celebration. The grocery stores will have special sales this week in an effort to entice people to stock up for the holiday weekend. Are you a union member who will be going to a large labor picnic? Or will it just be the family getting together, maybe at the beach or a lake cottage for a final summer plunge in the water? In any event, we all probably have a pretty good idea of who will be at our tables. It's unlikely that there will be uninvited guests-except for the ants or mosquitoes that seem to plague any outdoor event this time of year.

In the Gospel today Jesus lays down the challenge of who should be invited to the banquet. The poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind are the ones that are on his guest list. These were the individuals who were often excluded from society in Jesus' time. They were the folks that were on the fringe. Today, there are righteous people who have made a point of welcoming the unwanted. They've taken literally the message of the Gospel, and have gone out of their way to invite to dinner the homeless or the poor.

There are many who exercise a very concrete response to Jesus' call through their support of a meal program or food pantry, whether they donate food, or their time, or cash to support the good work. We tend to think of the poor at Thanksgiving or Christmas; times when we're often more generous toward those in need. But with back-to-school costs right now, many families are suffering. It may not be possible to invite someone who is hungry or poor to your cookout next weekend, but you can still help them through a gift to a charity that feeds the hungry. LIFE INSURANCE – THE FORGOTTEN GIFT:

Do you have a life insurance policy you no longer need? Maybe you have other assets that provide you the financial protection you require. If so, your insurance policy would make a wonderful charitable gift to CALVERT CATHOLIC SCHOOLS, VISION 2010 Endowment Campaign. Generally speaking, with your gift of the insurance policy you will receive a charitable income tax deduction for the replacement value. If you have an insurance policy you may like to contribute or want to learn how this program works, contact Mike Baltzell, CCS, 419-447-0358.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED TO READ with 2nd and 3rd graders at Calvert Elementary. Help students improve reading fluency and develop literacy skills. Volunteers are needed on a weekly or bi-weekly basis on Mondays, Tuesdays or Wednesdays from 10:15-11:30 a.m. Please call Rose Horn at 419-937-1901 or the school office at 447-5790 if you can help or if you have questions.
