NEW DEVELOPMENTS FROM FR. ERIC

A couple weeks ago I shared with you that Bishop Blair has appointed me the part-time chaplain at Calvert High School. Since then, after consulting with Fr. Gary, Fr. Joe, and principal Tony Mass, it has been decided that I should also teach eleventh grade religion, which Fr. Jim Halleron formerly taught. One semester will focus on Creed, that is, our fundamental Catholic beliefs as taught in the Catechism. The other semester will deal with Morality, or how to make correct decisions in our lives. Although the official schedule is still being formulated, I plan to teach one class late in the morning and one in the afternoon. This means I will continue to celebrate weekday Masses at St. Mary's, but will rarely be able to preside at funerals. Also, the best place to telephone me before 3:00 pm will be Calvert High School. I am very excited to teach and look forward to spending time with all the youth at Calvert!

SCAT DRIVERS for August 9 are Ken and Ann Jones.

Families Live Out the Word in Everyday Routines (F.L.O.W.E.R.) August 2.

Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. What a perspective! We don't (or at least shouldn't) simply work for money or for the things that money can buy - we work for a quality of life that comes from relationships. Jesus, the Son of Man, was all about relationships and that is what we as parents, grandparents, and caring adults are about as well. That is why our dinner tables are not modeled on 'fast food drive through windows' where we simply come for body fuel - but on 'banquets' where we come for spiritual and emotional fuel. It is where we come for conversation, support, and laughter. It is a place where we can regularly find relationships-where we learn the fundamentals of relationships and practice living them out.
