FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: Halloween is the night before All Saints Day. Today's gospel asks us to concentrate on loving our neighbor. Our closest neighbors are the people with whom we live. Anyone can be "saint" in front of strangers but the daily acts of patience, acceptance, forgiveness, listening, and dying to oneself within the family are religious acts. Family life is the turf of sanctity.

GOSPEL SUMMARY: "Love God wholeheartedly and love your neighbor as yourself" is how Jesus sums up the whole law and the prophets. These vertical and horizontal loves are imaged in the cross of Christ Jesus, which binds all creation together and leads all creation to God. We receive the cross in baptism as a sign that we are servants of the living God who raised his Son from the dead so that Jesus might save us from sin and retribution.

"What is your fondest childhood memory of the parish you grew up in? What was life in your Parish like when you were growing up?" Please mention the Pastor, any Associate Pastors and the decade in which your story comes from. Thank you, Dan Traxler
