

Some Young Carpenter

Intro
C Dm G
Far beyond the reaching hands of any man I know,
F C
Locked within the colors of the sky,
Fm G
Hidden in the glow of young lovers' eyes,
G C
God has traced a loving path for me.

Refrain
F C
Some young carpenter has risen, they say;
G C
there's hope today, there's hope today! (Repeat)

C Dm G
Not for any weight of silver or for Orphir's gold
F C
Has He willed his power to the wind;
Fm G
When He measured out the waters in his love,
G C
God has traced a loving path for me. Refrain

C Dm G
Maybe I'm a laughing stock of nameless worth,
F C
loathed by the city of my birth,
Fm G
outlawed by my people who sing ballads of my pain;
G C
God has traced a loving path for me. Refrain

C Dm G
I cannot obscure his plan with empty-headed words,
F C
searching for answers I can't find.
Fm G
I will go on waiting as the bird waits for the spring;
G C
God has traced a loving path for me. Refrain
